THE WAR WITH SPAIN IS OVER.

Peace Restored Between That Country and the Great
United States.

RATIFICATION OF PEACE EXCHANGED.

Secretary Hay Acts for the United States and M. Cambon for Spain.

BELLAMY STORER WILL BE OUR NEW MINISTER.

Spain Has Not Yet Selected Her Representative at Washington—Consuls Will Be Chosen for Various Places.

Washington, April 12.—The condition of war which has existed between the United States and Spain since April 21, 1898, has terminated and the last formalities in the restoration of peace were performed by the exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty. Coincident with this, President McKinley issued his proclamation declaring that the war was at an end and the appointment of Bellamy Storer was determined on as United States minister to Spain.

The principal ceremony of the day occurred in the reception room at the White House when the exchange of ratifications took place. In anticipation of the historical character of the event, many members of the cabinet and officials prominent in the administration gathered at the White House. Secretary Hay acted for the United States and M. Cambon, the French ambassador, for Spain.

President McKinley then issued a proclamation declaring the war with Spain at an end.

M. Cambon thanked the president for the promptness with which the proclamation followed. This ended the formal ceremony and after brief felicitations the ambassador and other officials withdrew. Secretary Hay took with him the Spanish copy of the treaty received and deposited it in the archives of the state department.

M. Cambon telegraphed the Spanish government of the final restoration of peace and made it known that the American copy of the treaty would be forwarded through the French foreign office. The effect of the action taken is to completely renew the peaceful relations, trade, official, diplomatic, consular and in all other ways, between this country and Spain. Following the appointment of a United States minister to Madrid and a Spanish minister to Washington, it is expected that consuls will be sent to Barcelona and the other large places in Spain where our consular representatives were suspended by the war. At the same time Spanish consuls will be appointed throughout this country.

For a time the trade and navigation between the two countries will proceed without treaty protection, as the war put an end to the commercial treaty, but a treaty of trade, navigation and commerce, suitable to the new conditions and needs of both countries, and also an extradition treaty, will be negotiated soon.

MINISTER TO SPAIN.

Bellamy Storer Selected as the United States Representative at Madrid.

Washington, April 12.—Bellamy Storer has been selected for the Madrid mission. The new minister to Madrid will have very important duties to perform, including the early negotiation of

SHE PLEADED GUILTY.

Dr. Nancy Guilford Fined $1 and Given
Ten Years' Sentence.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 12.—A sensational turn was taken in the case of murder against Mrs. Nancy Guilford yesterday. Her case had been on trial for several days when a juror was taken ill and the jury had to be discharged, Mrs. Guilford being replaced under bond to appear for trial at another date. She was returned to jail awaiting the fixing up of her bond when she decided to plead guilty. She was taken before Judge Wheeler and said she was guilty of manslaughter. She was fined $1 and given 10 years in the penitentiary.

Ordered Prisoners Released.

Wichita, Kas., April 12.—Sensational charges recently made by local peace officers were discredited when Justice Glenn ordered the release of B. L. Mathis and wife and Herbert and Willis Simpson, who were arrested on the strength of an alleged confession of a convict in the Kansas penitentiary who charged them with numerous crimes and who also charged that one Frank Allgood, their associate, was the murderer of Joseph New. New's wife and John Marsh are now serving a life sentence for that crime. While the dismissals were on a technicality, Mathis and his wife were not arrested and left town.

Shafter Gives His Testimony.

Washington, April 12.—Major General Shafter, who conducted the campaign against Santiago, was the principal witness before the beef inquiry board Tuesday. His statement differed little from his testimony before the war investigating commission. Some of the Pennsylvania volunteers gave direct testimony as to the tainted character of the refrigerated beef and the canned roast beef. One of them testified that beef aboard the Mississippi had maggots in it.

The Time Not Down.

Raleigh, April 12.—The search of captions of laws passed by the legislature fails to discover the supplementary bill supposed to have been passed postponing enforcement of the "Jim Crow" car law until June 1. If it was not passed the law is now in full force and effect, and anyone who rides in a car with a negro may complain to the corporation commission, and ask that suit be brought for recovery of penalty.

Temporary Bridge Gives Way.

New York, April 12.—The temporary superstructure of the big Willis avenue bridge now being built over the Harlem river collapsed Tuesday afternoon killing four men and seriously injuring six, one of whom may die. Twelve or more other workmen also received injuries of a more or less serious nature. The accident was caused by too great a weight being put on the traveling derrick that crosses the superstructure.

Made Thirty-three Knots.

London, April 12.—The Albatross, a new type of torpedo boat destroyer just built at the yards of Thornycroft & Co., at Chiswick, has attained a speed of 33 knots, making this record on her trial trip, with the admiralty officials on board. This is the highest speed reached by any warship. The destroyer is 227 feet long and 21 feet beam, with a draught of 8½ feet.

River Steamer Quarantined.

St. Louis, April 12.—The steamer City of St. Louis, Captain Thorwegan, is quarantined at the southern limits of St. Louis because of a case of smallpox found on board. She has 30 first class and 35 second class passengers, with 10 deck hands on board, where they will be compelled to stay until danger of contagion is removed.

New Lincoln Monument.

Springfield, Ill., April 12.—The house has passed the bill providing for the erection here of a new Lincoln monument at a cost of $1,000,000. The bill appropriates $100,000 and provides that $400,000, be raised by popular subscription. Congress will be asked to appropriate the remainder.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

Marietta, Ga., April 12.—Mack Farmer, a negro, living near Elizabeth, a short distance north of Marietta, seriously wounded his wife and his mother-in-law and then killed himself with the same pistol. Farmer and his wife had had some trouble and were living apart.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1899.

The American steel trust lately reported an increase of 10 per cent in the pay for its men. This step was taken after a series of combinations that gave to the new octopus the control of the entire output. The concerns that entered the trust had on their pay rolls nearly 88,000 men. But not all of them gain the increase. To be plain, as soon as the trust was formed, several of the minor plants were closed, throwing thousands out of work. This in itself is a crime that cannot be atoned for by raising the pay of the men left undisturbed. In any event the pay roll of the steel trust, raise or no raise, has been vastly decreased. Then the price of the output has been raised 20 per cent to consumers. It is difficult to see where labor or anyone else gets the benefit of the 10 per cent increase.—Ex.

State Entomologist.

Prof. Frederick W. Mally of Hulen, Texas, has been selected by the board of directors of the A. and M. College, to fill the important position of state entomologist created by the Willacy bill passed during the present legislature.

The selection was eminently a wise one in every respect. Prof. Mally is a recognized authority in this work, his writings having been of great scope and value. He has lived in Texas a number of years and is perfectly familiar with his field of labor. Thoroughly equipped for his work and perfectly devoted to it, the best results cannot fail to follow from his labors.

FROM WELLBORN.

We had a nice rain here last Wednesday which was greatly needed.

Miss Wiley returned to her home at Sealy after spending a week with Mrs. J. N. Goodwin.

Miss Etta Mills returned to Allenfarm Friday.

Mr. C. M. Sandle is attending court at Liberty, Texas, and Mr. Carson of Hempstead is holding down the railroad office during his absence.

W. C. Boyett and M. M. Burford of College were here Saturday.

On last Friday as Mr. P. N. Causey and son, Tom, were going to the bottom they saw two wolves and had a fine race, but failed to bag any game, so soon Saturday morning W. B. McGregor, L. T. and Tom Causey and J. B. Neeley went on a hunt for them and the track was quickly struck and after four hours run the dogs bayed in a hole in the ground. They came here after tools to dig them out and P. N. Causey went to the place with a wagon load of tools, and after five hours work they succeeded in digging out a rabbit.

FROM GREEN'S PRAIRIE.

No sickness at present.

Several people of this community attended a fish fry near the river Saturday. They had plenty of fish and squirrels to eat and all had a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Symms of Peach Creek were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. I. M. Williams, W. Kincaannon and John Abler left for Bryan this morning to do their spring trading.

Mr. Sam Lee and family of Rock Prairie spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Williams of this settlement.

FROM ROCK PRAIRIE.

As I have seen nothing from our correspondent at this place for several weeks will drop in as an assistant.

The health of our community is very good.

Prof. Ben Wiley's school closed at this place a few days ago. Although "Ben," as he is familiarly known, was no stranger to us to commence with, and since he began his school at this place he has added many more friends to his already mammoth list. Prof. Wiley is endowed with many of the characteristics that it takes to make a successful educator and we heartily recommend him wherever he may cast his lot.

Most of our community attended a picnic at Sulphur Springs Saturday and a big time was the result. Mr. Durant Dansby and family of Bryan attended the picnic; also Mr. Ponnice Todd and sister, Mamie, of Bethel.

April fools have been the order of the day for the last week. Messrs. Richard Cook and Will Jolly of Steep Hollow were visitors in our community Sunday.

With success for the Eagle and its many readers will hie away.

JIM CROW.

Mr. J. M. Pace, died near Messa, Grimes county yesterday. He was a brother Mrs. Rebecca Uzzle formerly of this city. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this evening at Ennan church cemetery Grimes county.

ROUTED THE REBELS.

General Wheaton Puts Them to Flight from the Santa Maria District.

Manila, April 12.—General Wheaton started at daylight this morning with the Tenth Pennsylvania and the Second Oregon regiments, and two guns of the artillery to drive the rebels from the American right flanks between the railroad and the foot hills. He met with a slight resistance near Santa Maria and had one man wounded. The enemy bolted when shelled by the artillery and burned and abandoned the town of Santa Maria, where 1000 rebels were reported to have been concentrated. During the rest of the day the enemy were in full retreat towards the mountains, burning villages behind.

Lawton Successful.

Washington, April 12.—The war department has received a dispatch from General Otis saying that General Lawton's campaign had been concluded with great success. The war department officials say the result is very gratifying.

THE QUAY TRIAL.

Legal Fight as to the Admittance of Certain Evidence.

Philadelphia, April 12.—When court opened for the third day of the trial of ex-United States Senator Quay there were indications on all sides that the crucial point of the whole proceedings had been reached, namely, the question of admission of books of the bank as evidence, especially those documents found in the private desk of Cashier Hopkins.

The argument made Tuesday by David T. Watson, counsel for Quay, in opposition to their admission generally, and specifically to private letters written by Quay to Hopkins, which were identified by Teller Tabor, was the subject uppermost in the public minds. A decision in favor of the defense virtually means a collapse of the trial, while the admission of the books may prove a serious blow to the defendant.

Henry E. J. Boardman Ill.

Chicago, April 12.—Henry E. J. Boardman, a wealthy resident of Marshalltown, Ia., and general counsel for the Iowa Central Railroad company, lies critically ill at St. Joseph's hospital in this city, and his physicians say his illness will probably prove fatal within 24 hours. Mr. Boardman was born at Randolph, Vt., on June 21, 1827, and was graduated at Dartmouth college where he remained for some years instructor in Greek and Latin. He then studied law, and 40 years ago came west, settling in Iowa, where he became one of the leading corporation lawyers of the state. Beside serving the Iowa Central road as chief counsel, he represented the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa road in a legal capacity.

Mr. Peck Goes to Paris.

New York, April 12.—Ferdinand W. Peck, United States commission general to the Paris exposition, sailed on the steamer St. Louis, for Southampton on his way to Paris. Mr. Peck is accompanied by his wife and F. W. Woodward, assistant commissioner general. The commissioner general goes to Paris to consult with the French authorities, to complete arrangements for the erection of the United States government building and to attend to the various details connected with this country's exhibit at the fair. Mr. Woodward will probably remain in Paris all the summer in charge of the offices of the United States commission.

Favor an Extra Session.

Montgomery, Ala., April 12.—Telegrams received at the governor's office indicate that a majority of the members of the general assembly advise the executive to reassemble the legislature and give them an opportunity to repeal the bill providing for the holding of a constitutional convention. The telegrams are in answer to a circular letter addressed by the governor to each member of the legislature requesting an opinion and advice as to the calling of the legislative body to assemble again.

Morphy May Return.

Kansas City, April 12.—Attorneys for Santiago Morphy, the alleged Mexican embezzler, are considering the advisability of applying for a writ of habeas corpus. Morphy, however, may decide to return to Mexico. He is tired of dodging the officers he says, and believes he would receive fair treatment at home, where he has influential friends and relatives.

Vessel at Sea on Fire.

New York, April 12.—The North German Lloyd steamer Saale, which arrived here from Genoa, Naples and Gibraltar, reports a vessel on fire at sea April 9. The steamer's whistles were sounded at frequent intervals, but failed to elicit any response. The fire was in the after part of the vessel, which appeared to be a laden craft.

May Get Together.

Kansas City, April 12.—The talk of a compromise between the two factions of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railroad is gaining ground. G. McD. Trimble and E. L. Martin, two of the receivers, have left for New York. Reorganization of the company, it is said, will engage their attention while there, and a compromise may be found.

American Locomotives for England.

New York, April 12.—The Cooke Locomotive works of Patterson, N. J., has received a contract for the construction of five locomotives for the Barry railway of Wales. English manufacturers competed in the bidding.

Holding Night Sessions.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Several Bills Passed and Many Discussed by Legislators.

Austin, April 12.—The first bill passed by the senate yesterday was one authorizing the several counties in this state to invest the permanent school fund belonging to such counties in their own bonds, and to use the proceeds thereof for general purposes and to make the county liable for such on investment, was passed finally.

Mr. Miller called up his motion to reconsider the vote on the engrossment of substitute house bill, giving the state board of education an option of 10 days on county bonds and on the bonds of incorporated cities and providing that when a premium is paid for bonds the board of education shall refund the same. The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was engrossed prevailed.

Mr. Miller offered an amendment striking out of the bill all reference to the bonds of incorporated cities.

The bill was debated and finally went over.

Mr. Dibrell secured consideration of his bill appropriating $100,000 to pay the officers and men of the Texas volunteer guard prior to the mustering into the service of the United States in the late war with Spain; to pay those who were rejected; to pay for the necessary supplies, subsistence, transportation, prior to their being mustered into service; to authorize the governor to collect from the United States all moneys expended under this act.

The bill was ordered engrossed and passed finally under a suspension of the rules without a dissenting vote.

Several local bills were passed and some discussed.

The house took up the appropriation bill in the committee of the whole and the first amendment was appropriation of $5588-79 to pay the Hogg & Robertson claim. The amendment was defeated. The bill was not completed.

The bill imposing an annual tax on peddlers was taken up, many amendments adopted and the bill passed.

Deepening the Alabama River.

Selma, Ala., April 12.—During the past week an experienced engineer from Pennsylvania was in Selma taking elevations and otherwise making inquiries into the feasibility of deepening the Alabama river, by a system of dams so as to allow ocean going vessels to come up as far as Selma. The purpose is to construct 10 dams at intervals on the river, which will give a 30-foot depth at all times in its channel. The engineer estimated that each dam could be constructed at a cost not exceeding $1,000,000, making a total cost of turning the Alabama into a ship canal of about $10,000,000. In whose interest the engineer who made the estimate came to Selma, is not known.

Steamer Kairos Is Safe.

Halifax, April 12.—The steamer Kairos, which was discovered in mid-ocean, nearly a month ago while bound for Great Britain, has arrived at this port without assistance. The Kairos has been in tow by two different steamers, but both were obliged to give up all attempts to get her into port, owing to the boisterous weather that prevailed. When last heard from the disabled craft was in tow of the Exeter City, but parted from her last Wednesday during the snow storm and did not sight her again. Captain Kairos had a difficult task in working his ship to Halifax.

Woman Shot by a Tramp.

South Charleston, O., April 12.—A tramp entered the home of Mrs. James Hutzler, on a farm three miles west of this place, and shot her four times in the presence of her children. His purpose was robbery. The man was captured at Jeffersonville and hurried to the London jail to escape lynching at the hands of neighbors of the murdered woman.

Fire at Espanola.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 12.—The town of Espanola has almost been destroyed by fire. Three large warehouses and a store belonging to Bond Bros. burned, causing a loss of $125,000.

Editor Linn Dead.

Denison, Tex., April 12.—Thomas Linn, editor of the Wynnwood (I. T.) Republic, died at his home in Wynnwood after a long illness. Mr. Linn formerly resided in Denison.

A GERMAN IS HELD

He Is Charged With Leading the Rebels in the Attack on the Handful of Men—Matters Becoming More Complicated.

Auckland, N. Z., April 12.—Dispatches received here from Apia, Samoa, of April 1 say that a party of 105 American and British sailors were forced to retreat to the beach after having been caught in ambush on a German plantation on that date. The expedition was led by Lieutenant Freeman of the British cruiser Tauranga.

Lieutenant Freeman and Lieutenant Lansdale of the United States cruiser Philadelphia, Ensign J. R. Monahan of the United States cruiser Philadelphia, were left dead on the field. Ensign Monahan remained to assist Lieutenant Lansdale and was shot retreating. Two British and two American sailors were also killed.

The natives engaged were some of Mataafa's warriors. They severed the heads of the British and American officers that were killed. Priests of the French mission afterwards brought the heads into Apia.

The manager of the German plantation has been arrested and detained on board the Tauranga, on an affidavit declaring that he was seen urging the natives to fight.

In previous engagements 27 of Mataafa's warriors were killed and there were no casualties among the European forces.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

The Rebels That Made the Attack Numbered Eight Thousand.

San Francisco, April 12.—The Call prints the following copyrighted cablegram:

Auckland, N. Z., April 12.—On April 1, 8000 of Mataafa's men ambushed 100 bluejackets near Apia. Fighting was terrific, the American and British tars repeatedly beating back their assailants who sought to overwhelm them by force of numbers. Lieutenant Lansdale and Ensign Monahan of the United States cruiser Philadelphia, and Lieutenant Freeman of the British gunboat Tauranga were killed. After the rebels had been driven off, the bodies of the three officers were recovered. They had been decapitated by the savage, Samoan warriors. Four marines were killed.

Mataafa's loss was 40 killed and a number wounded, these being carried off the field by the rebels when they retired. The bodies of Lansdale, Monahan and Freeman, as well as those of the unfortunate marines, were buried with military honors at Mulinu. There is constant fighting with the natives around Apia and the life of no one on the island is safe.

WILL NOT TALK.

High Officials at Washington Are Thinking Deeply, but Saying Nothing.

Washington, April 12.—The news from Samoa was received here with a feeling approaching dismay. There is a refusal on the part of high officials to discuss the sad event.

The secretary of the German embassy called early upon Secretary Hay. Neither of the officials would disclose anything as to the nature of the exchange that took place.

The arrest and detention by the British naval officers of a German subject is one of the most dangerous features of the controversy.

It is believed that Admiral Kautz, with the co-operation of the British will continue his efforts to bring the rebellious natives to terms. This is not likely to be an easy task in view of the small force at his command, but it is possible the British government may send a regiment of soldiers to Apia.

WITH DEEP CONCERN.

British and German Embassies at Washington Regret the Clash.

Washington, April 12.—At the British and German embassies here news of another bloody conflict in Samoa was received with deep concern. Sir Julian Pauncefote expressed profound regret of a collision at a moment when he had hoped the trouble was in a fair way of adjustment. Mr. Elliott, the British high commissioner to Samoa, also deplored the event. The British officials are quite confident, however, that the chances of a settlement will not be destroyed by this affair, although they might be somewhat embarrassed.

The German ambassador, Dr. Von Holleben, stated while he was entirely without official advice, he deeply regretted to hear there had been further loss of life.

In all diplomatic quarters there was a disposition to treat the news as grave, but not disrupting plans for settlement.

A sharp difference has developed between the British and German foreign officers as to getting the high commission off for Samoa on April 19. Lord Salisbury says the commissioners cannot be instructed by telegraph, so as to get away on April 19. The British view of it is that there is no chance of getting away until next month.

The following official German view is given to the Associated Press:

"After Germany and the United States had arrived at such an understanding that the commission could have left San Francisco on April 19, England raises new difficulties of such a complicated nature that they cannot be dealt with telegraphically. Germany feels justified under these circumstances to hold the name of her commissioners still back.

"Berlin news that Germany would demand satisfaction for the arbitrary action of Admiral Kautz is not credited in official German circles, and seems to be malicious invention. The whole question of the account of Samoa is pending at present, not between the three powers, but between Germany and England."

SENSATION AT LONDON.

Conflict in Samoa Created Excitement in Official Circles of the Navy.

London, April 12.—Dispatches to the Associated Press from Apia, Samoa, via Auckland, N. Z., were the only news received here of the treacherous attack made by the Mataafa's upon the American and British naval officers. They created a considerable sensation in official circles and among the general public. Newspapers sent out large placards printed with such startling statements as, "British and American forces routed," "German treachery, etc., etc."

The heroic conduct of Ensign Monahan, of the United States cruiser Philadelphia, particularly appeals to the public.

The British admiralty later received a dispatch from Captain Stuart, the senior British naval officer in Samoan waters, giving the news of the death of Lieutenant Freeman, of the British cruiser Tauranga, in an engagement with rebels. Beyond this, no further details have been received.

The German ambassador here, Count Von Hatzfeldt-Waldenburg, first received the news from a representative of the Associated Press, he quickly recognized its importance and asked permission to make a copy of the dispatch. He said: "This news is indeed grave, and it is unfortunate at this moment that anything should occur to endanger negotiations for the settlement that we were glad to feel would soon have arrived. Of course, I cannot discuss particulars given in the dispatch, but the occurrence is certainly very unfortunate."

AMERICAN FORCE AT APIA.

It Will Be Strengthened and Maintained Until All Trouble There Is Settled.

Washington, April 12.—Though the powers signatory to the Berlin treaty have practically agreed upon the instructions under which the Samoan commission will act, the administration will maintain a strong American force at Apia.

The collier Brutus is going to Apia, where she will remain until the collier Scandia arrives, when, if the situation permits, she will proceed to Guam. The collier Abarenda will soon start for Pago Pago, where she will take station as guardship pending the construction of a coaling station at that point. These colliers have fairly large crews and several rapid-fire guns and will be useful in case of another scrimmage with the natives.

Dispatch From Admiral Kautz.

Washington, April 12.—The following dispatch from Admiral Kautz has been received from Apia, via Auckland, N. Z.:

"On April 1, while the combined forces of British and United States, under Lieutenant Freeman of the British navy were reconnoitering near Apia, they were ambushed. Deeply regret to announce the death of Lieutenant Philip B. Lansdale, Ensign John R. Monahan, Coxswain James Buttler, Ordinary Seaman Norman Edsall, and five men wounded, belonging to the Philadelphia. Two men and Lieutenant Freeman of the British forces were killed."

Lieutenant Philip Lansdale was born in the District of Columbia, Feb. 15, 1858, and entered the naval academy June 6, 1873. He graduated in 1878 and was promoted in 1881, and after duty at the Washington navyyard was transferred to the Philadelphia June, 1890. He was made lieutenant of the junior grade in 1893. He was in charge of the caravels at the World's fair in Chicago and after receiving full lieutenantcy, was for a short time on the battleship Massachusetts.

Ensign John R. Monahan was appointed to the naval academy as cadet from the state of Washington. He was made ensign in July, 1897, being assigned to Philadelphia, to which vessel he was attached up to the time of his death.

Election Divided.

The Most Liberal Policy

EXTANT. EQUALED NOWHERE!
Not Approached by the Contract of any other Company.

On March 8, 1899, the PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY made a radical departure. While retaining all of its great variety of plans of life insurance and, for the purposes of securing full information in order to judge of the acceptability of applicants, adhering to its present forms of proposals, it decided upon the issue of any one of its contracts of insurance it would immediately endorse thereon the following:

"This Policy is Absolutely Incontestable from date of issue for any cause except non-payment of premium, anything in this contract to the contrary notwithstanding."

While the Company will scrutinize carefully all applications, yet once agreeing to accept a risk, it is accepted in its entirety, wholly and irrevocably, without provision or condition, except the payment of premium.

The endorsement which it now puts upon its policies is not limited to a special class of insurers or to a few special forms of contract. All good and acceptable risks are treated alike, thus preserving a proper mutuality. No one is asked to forego his dividends—they may be used in reduction if he desires; no one is put into a special class; no invidious or unjust distinction in the membership is permitted. The contract of life insurance is so broadened and liberalized that it is a simple and inviolable promise to pay at a given date, or upon death, and NOTHING IN LAW OR EQUITY OR CIRCUMSTANCE OR CONDITION CAN POSSIBLY DEFEAT IT. It is the crystallization of the idea expressed in the few words: "You pay us; we pay you." It is freer from condition, than a bond of the United States, and is as unailing security.

The effect of the above endorsement upon the policies of the Penn Mutual is to make them a world-wide contract, free from all conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, habit of life, and as to manner, time or place of death. It is the ultimate in life insurance, for no contract can possibly go any further than to be an unconditional promise to pay.

Without any increase in premium, or without any stipulation as to the use of dividends, the policies embrace:

First—Automatic extension—the longest.
Second—Paid up insurance—the largest.
Third—Cash or Loan Values—the most liberal.
Fourth—No conditions as to residence, occupation, suicide, dueling, violation of law or military or naval service.

Fifth—While absolutely incontestable for any cause, except non-payment of premium, they provide for immediate payment upon receipt and approval of proofs of death; for reinstatement in case of lapse at any time; premiums are accepted within thirty days of the date due, if the insured is in good health; notes are accepted in settlement; every possible consideration is shown the insured.

Sixth—While the policy itself is the complete contract, a copy of the application is furnished for the information of the insured.

Nothing has heretofore been done in life insurance which will command such world-wide attention and instant approval. It shows that the PENN MUTUAL has reached the goal toward which others are sauntering, and far in advance of all its competitors.
